

OFFICIALS AWAIT GERMAN REPORT

Despatches from Berlin Say U-Boat May Not Re- turn for A Fortnight

TO GIVE ASSURANCES

Bernstorff Feels that, Barring Adjustment of Minor Details, Friction Is at an End

HOPE FOR PEACE IN EUROPE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador will leave Washington tomorrow for New York, to await instructions from his government, which he confidently expects will lead to negotiations that will bring a speedy and wholly satisfactory conclusion to the controversy between the United States and Germany over the question of submarine warfare. Unless the situation in Berlin wholly changes before the despatches are sent, the ambassador believes he will be authorized to re-open informal discussions with Secretary Lansing to the end that a note may be framed by the German government entirely satisfactory to the United States.

Await Admiralty Report.
So far as the state department is concerned, formal presentation of the Arabic case to Germany awaits receipt from Ambassador Gerard at Berlin of the German admiralty report on the destruction of the ship. Despatches from Berlin tonight said the report might be made any day or might be delayed a fortnight. The last of the German submarines operating south of Ireland will not return to port before that time. Until the admiralty statement is received, however, and the Arabic case disposed of, it is unlikely that a discussion of the broader question of submarine warfare will be re-opened.

Anxious for Friendly Ending.
In German circles here it is firmly believed that the Berlin government is anxious to bring to a quick and friendly termination the whole discussion over the submarine campaign. The visit of Count Bernstorff to Washington, acting on instructions from Berlin, is viewed as conclusive proof that the liberal element of the German government has triumphed and that every effort will be made to meet the views of President Wilson as expressed to the ambassador in an interview soon after the Lusitania was destroyed. The German foreign office is believed to be ready to encourage an informal exchange of views between Count Von Bernstorff and Secretary Lansing in order that the drafting of a full reply to the last American note on the Lusitania satisfactory to the Washington government may be hastened.

Berlin to Give Assurances.
As to the Arabic case it was positively stated today that whatever the German admiralty report might be the Berlin government would give assurances that its submarine commanders had received explicit instructions that no passenger ships be attacked without warning. This was in accordance with suggestions sent to Berlin by Count Von Bernstorff immediately after his interview with President Wilson.

Even should the submarine commander attempt to justify his action or should not report ever be received from a German commander as to the Arabic, it is believed the German government will seek to make it clear that as a national policy the warfare against passenger ships has been suspended. Already offers of reparation for American lives lost with the ship have been informally made and Ambassador Bernstorff feels that barring adjustment of minor details the friction between the two countries is at an end.

New Hope for Peace.
Out of the relaxing tension of the situation a new hope for peace in Europe has sprung. German observers here have noted that there is a group in each country which sees possibilities of American mediation behind the peaceful adjustment of the American-German dispute. With one concession won from the belligerents by diplomatic means—the security of the lives of neutrals on the high seas—it is thought possible that other proposals may follow with restoration of peace as their object. The ascendancy of the liberal element in Germany it is said, lends color to that view so far as Germany is concerned.

SALES UNDER SEALED ORDERS.
Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—The United States supply ship Calgoa, sailed from the Philadelphia navy yard today for Hampton Roads under sealed orders. The ship carries a heavy supply of stores and currency and it was stated unofficially that her destination was Haiti.

COL. ROOSEVELT TAKES ISSUE WITH DANIELS

POINTS WHAT HE CALLS UNPREPAREDNESS OF U. S. FLEET

Declares That for Nearly Two Years Ships Were Never Exercised in Fleet Maneuvers—Bryan Criticizes Roosevelt's Recent Plattsburgh Speech.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Former President Theodore Roosevelt tonight issued another lengthy statement in reply to Secretary of War Garrison in the controversy brought about by Mr. Roosevelt's Plattsburgh speech. Colonel Roosevelt took issue with the secretary on the administration's attitude toward Mexico and Haiti. He also called attention to what he called the unpreparedness of our fleet, saying in part:

"I point out to him that for nearly two years, in 1913 and 1914, the ships of the navy were never exercised in fleet maneuvers and, as I am reliably informed, were never exercised, in fleet or squadron gunnery. A moderately intelligent child of six knows that the failure for two years to undertake such maneuvers means a literally criminal deterioration in the fleet and cannot possibly mean anything else. No expert knowledge is needed on this point; it is a mere matter of ordinary common sense.

"The very great falling off in the gunnery that was shown by the results last spring and the early part of the summer are directly due to this culpable misconduct in handling our navy; and it represents unpreparedness of the very worst kind because unpreparedness that takes the shape of letting the weapons that have been made ready utterly deteriorate is even worse than failure to provide new weapons."

Bryan Criticizes Speech.
Chicago, Aug. 28.—William Jennings Bryan, on his way to Winona Lake, Ind., stopped long enough in Chicago today to criticize Theodore Roosevelt for his speech at Plattsburgh, N. Y., recently. Mr. Bryan indicated he thought the colonel might be useful as an example. "It is said to have been an ancient custom for parents to teach their children the evils of intemperance by taking before them persons in an intoxicated condition," Mr. Bryan said. "It is possible that Mr. Roosevelt is serving a useful purpose in warning the public of the effects which the doctrine of preparedness may have on a man when he gives himself up to it as a regular business."

TAFT AT FAIR PLEADS THE CAUSE OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 28.—William Howard Taft, former president of the United States, pleaded today the cause of the American Red Cross at exercises celebrating Red Cross day at the Panama-Pacific exposition. He urged a membership of millions, more funds and neutrality in giving. He praised Americans for their ready response to calls for relief funds when the European war began but deprecated the fact that two-thirds of the funds given were disbursed by relief bodies organized on the spur of the moment while the Red Cross stood ready with a trained organization to do the work.

KENTUCKIANS TO ADOPT TEXAS PLAN ON LIQUOR

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 28.—County mass conventions are being held throughout the state today by the Democratic party, for the election of delegates to the State convention, which will be held here on Tuesday. It is believed that the Democratic politicians will adopt the Texas plan of handling the liquor question, in the platform to be adopted next Tuesday. It is pointed out that the Democrats of Texas, after a hard party fight, had succeeded in eliminating the question as a campaign issue by adopting a plank in their platform declaring temperance laws on the statute books at that time to be satisfactory and in which the nominee for governor was pledged to veto any legislation relating to the liquor question in that state.

Judge S. W. Hager of Owensboro, who looked after A. O. Stanley's interests in the primaries, is State Chairman of the Democratic committee.

TREASURER TRAIN ENROUTE TO NEW YORK CITY

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 28.—A treasure train containing millions of dollars in gold and securities shipped from London by way of Halifax, N. S., passed through New England tonight on its way to New York. In the six steel express cars containing the second of a series of gold shipments designed to strengthen British credits in the United States, 38 armed guards kept watch while a pilot train was sent in front to make sure that the roadbed was safe.

TO INCREASE FORCE.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The coast artillery force on duty at the Panama canal will be increased to full strength of 28 companies or about 2,000 men, it was learned today, the former policy of maintaining the big gun crews at about half strength in peace time having been abandoned.

PEACE CONFEREES WILL MEET SOON

Diplomats Will Consider Replies From Mexican Revolutionary Leaders

MAJORITY ANSWER

Carranza's Response is Ex- pected as Soon as He Reaches Mexico City

EXPECT BATTLE AT TORREON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—A meeting of the Pan-American Peace conferees will be held soon for the purpose of considering the replies to the peace proposal recently despatched to Mexican revolutionary leaders, it was announced at the state department tonight. No definite date for the meeting of the conferees has been set, it was said, but the belief here was that the conference will convene during the next week. A majority of the Mexican leaders now have replied to the appeal of the conference for a peace agreement.

Expect Carranza Reply Soon.
The reply of General Venustiano Carranza, it was stated today, is expected early next week. It is believed that the call for the meeting of the peace conferees will be issued as soon as Carranza's reply is in the hands of the secretary of state.

Carranza officials here said the reply probably would be sent as soon as General Carranza reached Mexico City to re-establish his capital there. He has chosen to delay his answer until then, it is said, because he wishes to impress the conferees with the fact that his government which he claims is in control of the greater part of Mexico, is well established in the capital of the republic.

Villa Reply Favorable.
Responses favorable to the appeal have come from General Villa and all his military commanders, members of his cabinet and political advisers. All replies from Carranza's generals and advisers have referred to the decision to reject the Carranza and Villa factions have accepted the offer of the Pan-American conference for aid in arranging for a convention to be held in neutralized Mexican territory for the purpose of creating a provisional government to arrange general elections.

Battle at Torreon Impending.
Before another conference is held, Carranza's adherents are hopeful General Obregon will have captured Torreon toward which he is said to be advancing. Villa is said to be massing his forces at Torreon to meet the attack. A decisive battle there may have a far reaching effect on the future of the republic.

MURDOCK'S DAUGHTER WEDS; OFF TO CHINA

Wichita, Kas., Aug. 28.—Miss Marcia Murdock, daughter of former Congressman Victor Murdock, the Progressive leader in Congress, will be married at the Murdock home here today to Lieutenant Harvey Delano, U. S. N. The young couple will depart at once for China, sailing a week from today for Shanghai, where Lieut. Delano goes to join the personal staff of Admiral Winterhalter of the Asiatic squadron.

Miss Murdock made her debut in Washington several years ago. The wedding is to be attended by many guests.

PRE-SBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

Stony Brook, L. I., Aug. 28.—Today's program is one of the most important of the summer assembly at Stony Brook. Rev. John T. Carson, former moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly, is presiding. Rev. George L. Robinson, of Chicago, spoke this morning on "Turkey and the Nations." Many other speakers will be heard during the day. Rescue mission workers from all parts of the United States will gather here tomorrow for the gospel mission conference. Twenty speakers have been engaged for this conference, which will extend until Wednesday.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS VISIT SICK LEADER.

Sagamore Beach, Mass., Aug. 28.—Two hundred Christian Endeavorers met here today for the annual institute to train leaders in endeavor principles. It is hoped that President Clark will make the final address a week from today. Sagamore is the summer home of Dr. Clark, who is now recuperating from the severe illness which has kept him here all summer.

DANIELS IN BATH, MAINE.

Bath, Maine, Aug. 28.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels arrived here on board the Steamer Dolphin today to inspect the plant of the Bath Iron Works where the construction of two torpedo boat destroyers was begun a short time ago.

War News Summarized

The Arabic incident and Germany's submarine policy are the subjects of consideration at a conference now being held at the eastern headquarters of the German army between Emperor William and Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German imperial chancellor, Admiral Von Tirpitz, German minister of marine and Admiral Von Mueller, chief of the private marine cabinet and the emperor's personal adviser on naval affairs.

No news concerning the conference has reached Berlin. However, Admiral Von Mueller is said to have thrown his influence with that of the imperial chancellor and foreign minister Von Jagow in an endeavor to reach an amicable understanding with the United States. For this reason the opinion is expressed in the German capital that there is no cause to change the optimistic view of the situation created by Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg's pronouncement of last Wednesday.

While Petrograd unofficially expresses the opinion that the Russians are on the eve of digging themselves in and making a stand on a new front, there are no indications as yet of a halt in their retrograde movement or of any let up in the force of the Teutonic onrush. To the contrary the Austro-German offensive has broken out again in a sector where there had been comparative inactivity for the better part of two months past—in Eastern Galicia where the lines along the Dniester, the Zlota Lipa and the Gnita Lipa have changed only little since early July when the Teutonic armies swung north and began the closing in movement which resulted in the Russian withdrawal from the Warsaw salient.

The retreat of Grand Duke Nicholas' armies from Bresl-Litovsk and the line to the north is being harassed by Field Marshal Von Mackensen's armies and those of Prince Leopold, of Bavaria, the latter having penetrated the Bieloviez forest, while southeast of Bialystok Gen. Von Eichhorn has pushed eastward as far as the town of Narva.

In the north, however, where Vilna and Dvinsk are at stake, the Russians are offering a stiff resistance. At some point here, apparently, they have even taken the offensive. Berlin declares their attacks were repulsed.

On the front in France the artillery and the airmen have been active, but infantry sallies from the trenches have been lacking.

Little change in the situation in the Dardanelles is indicated by recent advices, both official and unofficial. Conferences are in progress between British government officials and representatives of the Welsh miners among whom there is dissatisfaction over the arbitration award following the recent coal strike. Several thousand operatives already have gone out despite the advice of their leaders, 4,000 being added yesterday to the number on strike.

FRANK READ CHOSEN TO HEAD DAKOTA SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Former Jacksonville Man Has Impportant Educational Post and Will Go from Oklahoma to North Dakota.

The numerous Jacksonville friends of Mr. Frank Read will be interested in the announcement that he has just been appointed superintendent of the North Dakota school for the deaf. A telegram to this effect sent from Bismark, N. D., was received Saturday by Mr. Read's father, Rev. Frank Read of Sandusky street.

For a number of years Mr. Read was a valued member of the faculty of the Illinois School for the Deaf where his earnest work and his devotion to the larger duties of educational work gave him high place. Two years ago he became the superintendent of the new Oklahoma school for the deaf at Sulphur, Oklahoma. His work there has been successful and acknowledged of high order but recently because of political changes his resignation was asked to make place for another. Now Mr. Read is to go to a school where opportunities are equally large and the surroundings generally satisfactory. He is well qualified for the superintendency and the North Dakota school has secured a capable head.

IN THE OLD HOME.

Miss Elizabeth W. Reed, of Newton, Iowa, is revisiting this, her old home. Her father lives at Newton.

Miss Reed says one of her brothers, William Thomas, is in California, and the other, Julius A., is in New York city, where he married. The one in California is there because of poor health.

PATIENTS IMPROVED.

Victor Mitchell, of Roodhouse, who was injured in the automobile accident Friday night and is at Our Savior's hospital, was getting along as well as could be expected yesterday. Miss Winifred Newton who was hurt was able to return home. Mrs. Mitchell is in the city to see her husband.

JUDGE CREIGHTON GIVES DECISION

Holds $289,848 of Approp- riations of Last Gen- eral Assembly Invalid

WILL NOT PAY MONEY

Treasurer Russel to Withhold Payment of Legal Items Until Appeal Question is Decided

TALK OF SPECIAL SESSION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 28.—A total of $289,848 of the appropriations of the last general assembly is held invalid by a decision of Judge James A. Creighton in the Fergus injunction proceeding today.

Included in this sum are the salaries of several state employees and the $26,000 appropriation for mileage of members of the legislature. The direct results of the decision of the court are:

1.—That the governor has the right to veto portions of an item in an appropriation or to cut down items which he thinks too large.

Commissions Legally Created.
2.—That the Illinois centennial commission to investigate methods and conditions of charitable institutions and orphanages, and the commission to codify the state building laws were legally created by the general assembly.

3.—That the insurance department, the rivers and lakes commission and the state board of pharmacy can be given the right to prosecute violators of the law and that such provision made by the general assembly is legal.

4.—Tie up salaries in ninety-five state offices for two years.

5.—Prevents Lieutenant Governor O'Hara from drawing out of the state treasury $2,000 voted to him for traveling expenses.

6.—Stops payments on money voted to the state treasurer to be used in refunding taxes on real estate paid in error and over payment of collectors' accounts.

7.—Declares the mileage bill passed by the forty-ninth general assembly unconstitutional.

Following the handing down of the decision by Judge Creighton, a conference by representatives of John B. Fergus and Attorney General Lucey at the capitol building at which arrangements for an appeal to the supreme court was made.

Russel Will Not Pay Money.

Immediately after the reading of the opinion state treasurer Andrew Russel said to newspapermen that even where the injunctions were denied he would not pay a dollar of money challenged in the Fergus bills until he had been assured by Attorney Munro, and Attorney General Lucey, for the state and his personal attorneys that Munro and the attorneys associated with him had agreed not to appeal the items to the supreme court.

"Naturally I won't pay any money which the court has enjoined. Neither will I pay any other money which has been challenged in these bills, even though Judge Creighton has denied the injunction, until I have been assured that the items are not to be appealed to the Supreme court. When the Supreme court acts the money will be paid, or not, just as it is decided."

The topic of conversation which swayed all state house officials immediately after the reading of the opinion was whether a special session of the legislature would be called.

Attorney General P. J. Lucey said he did not believe Governor Dunne would call a special session until after the Supreme court had acted on the injunctions, which it is expected will be some time in October.

O'Hara Inclined to Doubt Report.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara was inclined tonight to doubt the accuracy of reports that his traveling allowance of $2,000 had been killed with other items in Judge Creighton's decision.

CALL FOR OBSERVANCE OF LAFAYETTE'S BIRTHDAY.

New York, Aug. 28.—A call for a general American observance of Lafayette's birthday on Sept. 6, was issued here today by a volunteer committee of which Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France, is honorary chairman. The anniversary falls on Labor Day, Sept. 6.

JOSEPH STEWART RESIGNS.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Joseph Stewart, second assistant postmaster general for the seven years, has resigned and he will be succeeded by Otto Praeger, postmaster of Washington. M. O. Chance, chief clerk of the department, will succeed Mr. Praeger.

Mr. Stewart has been retained by the department of justice in litigation now in the court of claims involving railway mail pay.

CLOTHING WORKERS THREATEN STRIKE

THE ANNOUNCEMENT AUTHORIZING STRIKE MAY BE MADE TODAY

Movement Involves 200,000 in Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Rochester, St. Louis Cincinnati and Milwaukee.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 28.—A general strike of clothing workers, involving 200,000 in Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Rochester, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Milwaukee, is in the balance, it was stated tonight at the meeting of the executive council of the amalgamated clothing workers of America here. Official announcement authorizing the strike which will tie up the clothing industry, it was said, would probably be made at a mass meeting to be held here tomorrow. The council authorized the Chicago workers to make their demands for a 48 hour week and higher wages. In the event the manufacturers refuse a general strike involving 50,000 workers in Chicago, will be called within six weeks, at the beginning of the busy season.

According to President Hillman, the grievance of the workers hinges on the long working hours and unless these are shortened, together with a general betterment in a short time, the leading clothing centers of the country will be tied up.

HYDROPLANE PLUNGES TO THE BOTTOM IN TWO MINUTES

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—The $25,000 hydroplane, Disturber V., owned by James A. Pugh, commodore of the Chicago Yacht Club which was launched yesterday, took too sharp a turn on her trial trip today in Lake Michigan, off a downtown street, careened and plunged to the bottom in less than two minutes.

Ned Simmons, the captain, and the mechanic, were the only persons on the craft and they were picked up. The Disturber V. was making approximately 45 miles an hour when the accident occurred. The sharp turn was made necessary to avoid running down Frank Westerland, a swimmer.

TONNAGE TAX SHOWS INCREASE

Washington, Aug. 28.—A tonnage tax of $1,314,916, more than four thousand dollars greater than the preceding year's receipts, was collected by the United States during the year ended June 30th., from ships in the foreign trade entering American ports, it was announced today. The announcement stated that the British and French ships paid $201 more this year than last but German ships which paid $186,844 in 1914, this year only contributed $25,871.

TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES AGAINST COLORADO MILITIA

Denver, Colo., Aug. 28.—An investigation into all matters concerning the Colorado National guard including the charges against the state militia and counter charges that a conspiracy exists to wreck the organization was ordered today by Governor George A. Carlson. A committee consisting of Captain W. P. Hershey, Mayor E. J. Boughton and Captain Henry M. Pingree, was appointed to conduct the inquiry and a session was called at once.

WEDS NAVAL OFFICER.

Wichita, Kan., Aug. 28.—Miss Marcia Murdock, daughter of former congressman and Mr. Victor Murdock, was married here late this afternoon to Lieut. Harvey Delano, U. S. N. Lieutenant and Mrs. Delano left this evening for San Francisco, from where they will sail, Sept. 4, to join his ship, the Vermont, which has been ordered to China. They will spend two years at Shanghai.

Lieut. Delano is a son of Mrs. M. Delano, of Murphysboro, Ill.

TO FORM RESERVE CORPS OF ENGINEERS.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Thirty thousand American engineers are to be represented for immediate service in the event of the United States becoming involved in war, according to an announcement made today by Byron J. Arnold.

TO ELEVATE BATTERIES.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Main batteries of American battleships hereafter will be given an elevation of thirty degrees, practically doubling the present angle of fire, according to a decision reached by navy department experts, it is said, after close study of all available information on naval engagements of the European war. Wherever possible ships now under construction and those already in commission, it is understood, will be similarly fitted.

AERONAUT IS KILLED.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 28.—George Williams, 25, an aeronaut, was killed late today when he jumped out of his parachute to escape falling into a forest. His neck was broken.

BREAK FLOODS FARM LAND.

Little Rock, Aug. 28.—New break today in the White river levee, ten miles above Des Arc, flooded an enormous area of farm land but ample warning enabled the inhabitants to reach places of safety with most of their personal possessions, though they suffered heavy losses in crops.

TEUTONS CONTINUE TO PRESS RUSSIANS

Have Not Yet Exhausted Efforts to Smash Mus- covites Completely

RUSS RETREAT ORDERLY

Munitions and Main Forces In- variably Keep Out of Reach of Pursuers

AIRMEN KEEP UP ACTIVITY

LONDON, Aug. 28.—German airmen have not yet exhausted their efforts to smash completely the Russian army. While the Germans in the Baltic provinces under Field Marshal Von Hindenburg have again become aggressive and are attempting to drive the Russians back to Dvina, the Austro-Hungarians, with the assistance of the Germans, have taken the offensive in southeastern Galicia, and, according to official statements from Berlin and Vienna, have succeeded in breaking through the Russian positions on the Zlota Lipa river, north and south of Brzezany.

Russ Retreat Orderly.

Along the rest of the front the Germans claim to be gaining more ground, but apparently they are as far as ever from their main endeavor—the capture or destruction of the Russian armies. The later, although pressed hard at many points continue their orderly retreat, leaving little or nothing that might be used by the invaders. Some rear guards, which were left behind with machine guns to retard the Austro-German advance, have been overwhelmed and captured but the guns, munitions and main forces invariably have kept out of reach of the relentless pursuers.

Whether the Russians will be able to make a stand in the new positions which they are said to have prepared the next few days should tell. There are reports that reinforcements are being sent from east to the western and Serbian fronts, but military writers express the opinion that so long as the Russian armies remain intact, it would be dangerous for the Austrians and Germans to detach troops for operations elsewhere. Now that the fortresses are reduced the big guns might be moved to some other field of operations.

No Evidence of Offensive in West.

This opinion apparently is borne out by the fact that there is no evidence of a German offensive in the west, while Serbian aviators are said to have ascertained that the Austro-German force gathered at Orzova for a rumored effort to force a way through Serbia and Bulgaria to render aid to Turkey, is not of the strength reported. Indeed, the Serbians express the opinion that the force is not strong enough for the task which some writers have set it.

On the western front, the activity of the airmen continues. Six German aviators attempted an attack on Paris but were driven off with the loss of one machine, while three allies, apparently the British, threw bombs on Ostend, Middlekerke and Bruges. On the Dunes at Middlekerke the Germans have some of their most formidable batteries for use against attack from the sea, while at Bruges the objective of the airman would be the canal and docks which are used extensively by the Germans for transport purposes. This was doubtless a further phase of the attack on the Belgian coast initiated by British warships last Tuesday.

Await Serbia's Answer.

The Balkan situation still creates a great deal of interest and confidence is expressed that with Serbia showing a compromising attitude it would be settled to the advantage of the entente allies. Serbia's reply to the allies, however, has not yet been delivered and Bulgaria, Greece and Roumania are holding their hands until the contents is known.

In these days when microbes, bacteria and bacilli are common words in the conversation even of children, one is not surprised to hear about something new each day which is threatening the public health. The most recent attack is upon that innocent little article which has heretofore been supposed to have a large place in personal cleanliness—the tooth brush. A New Jersey physician has charged that the tooth brush is little higher in the hygienic scale than the broom of the street sweeper. According to the New Jersey physician the tooth brush spreads a vast number of disease germs and this possibility of the heretofore much appreciated brush will be discussed at the great dental congress which will convene in San Francisco this week.

Whooping Cough and Vaccination.
A word of commendation should be accorded the New York department of health for its appeal to the physicians of New York for their collaboration in the more extensive use of vaccine in the treatment of whooping cough. This disease, "which kills yearly ten thousand American children," occupies a unique position among the infectious diseases, in that its onset is indefinite, its duration particularly long, and its seriousness not at all appreciated by the public. The basis for this appeal is in the favorable results in the use of the vaccine already reported. It would be well, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, if the collaboration were given still wider scope and were extended to other large municipalities so that we could determine without undue delay the possibility of reducing the morbidity and mortality of this disease.

Our Neighbor Up North.
From Collier's Weekly:
Canada is playing so loyal a part in the great war (about which she was consulted no more than China or the United States), one might suppose her population to be much greater than it really is. Yet Canada, which has already spent $150,000,000 in war costs and raised 150,000 men can count only 8,000,000 men, women and children—about one-twelfth the population of the United States. By making much of her agricultural opportunities though not so much as she means to make in future, Canada is supposed to have attracted a great many settlers from the United States—settlers of a highly desirable type. According to the "Statesman's Year Book", however, we seem to have lost to Canada only 300,000 odd. This is a decided understatement, yet we have in any case gained numerically by the exchange; there are about 1,250,000 Canadian-born in the United States.

McAdoo's Cotton Scheme.
The announcement by Secretary McAdoo of his purpose to loan, without interest, $30,000,000 in gold to three southern federal reserve banks, with the purpose of enabling them in turn to loan this money on cotton warehouse receipts, has brought forth the charge that such a step is both unnecessary and futile and can be designed for no purpose other than to make political capital. This is the view of practically all the bankers and financiers, who recall that a year ago Mr. McAdoo caused to be raised a $100,000,000 cotton pool which was a total failure, almost no part of the fund being used after it was raised, and the result being so ridiculous as to make the men interested ashamed to make public the amount of their expenses, which they paid out of their own pockets rather than reveal the extent of the fiasco. It is contended by those interested that the southern banks are in no need of funds beyond what they can easily procure from their regular banking correspondents and that the proposition to loan them $30,000,000 of Government funds is merely a petty scheme for carrying political favor.

Soft Corn May Prove Helpful.
The unusually cold weather of August and the wet season have already occasioned a good deal of talk among farmers about soft corn. Much has already been made of the advisability of farmers selecting a quantity of last year's corn crop before the bins are empty, because of the possibility that good fully matured corn will be scarce this year. In addition to this talk about seed corn, farmers are discussing the question of feeding more stock this year than heretofore.

The farmer who has a silo is in an advantageous position in this matter as quite an acreage of corn can be taken care of in this way. Soft corn which will not measure up to market conditions usually will give just about as good results in stock feeding as any other. Some farmers are planning if they have an excess of soft corn in October to utilize the crop by turning hogs in the corn fields. Others plan to cut the corn as usual and to increase the number of shocks and thus have the corn more exposed to the air. Then the fodder or the husked corn will be used in cattle feeding. It is probable that even if there is an excess of soft corn that there will be little direct loss, and if the condition results in keeping a larger amount of live stock in the county, farmers will really be benefited by the bad crop conditions.

Makes Real Success of Farming.
Dr. Taylor who made an address at the chautauqua Saturday, is considered one of the best posted agriculturists in the state of Illinois. His addresses and advice are founded upon actual experience. He is scientific in his methods. He knows what the books say, but he has tested out all these theories and knows whereof he speaks. He owns individually large acreage in Illinois and with others is interested in a large way in farming operations in the south, north and east. He has experience with a great variety of soils and his success in getting "blood" into "pale and anaemic" soils has been great indeed. On one of his farms near Moline he has a fine herd of Guernsey cattle and his statements about the advantages of live stock raising and of dairying are there given practical demonstration. Dr. Taylor by his own work and example and by his public addresses urging upon the farmers of the state the need for following certain principles which will build up the soil, is making a large contribution to the welfare of the state and the good of society.

A Suffrage Plan.
Senator Kenyon in his address at the chautauqua Friday added to his list of Morgan county admirers many women because of his unqualified statement with reference to woman's suffrage. Saturday a local politician was talking about presidential possibilities and one was referred to with the comment: "Well, he is one of the brainiest men in the country, but he is opposed to woman's suffrage and would stand little chance of election." So the people have come to recognize that this question is a leading one of the day.

In New York the suffragists are discussing a plan which they think will prove the fallacy of the claim that woman's place is in the home. They are seeking to emphasize the importance of women in the everyday life of the modern city. They want to appoint a certain day when all New York women and girls stay at home. This would have the appearance of a strike among all women who work in spheres outside the home and the suffragists think it would be a marked example of the influence and usefulness of women in everyday business life. A day has been set for this unique demonstration, but even the committees who have planned it have some doubts as to its success, for they realize that this must depend absolutely upon unity of action among the women and girls, and this is difficult, indeed, to obtain in such a great city as New York without a vast amount of preliminary work.

Give the Commission Form a Fair Trial.

A well organized business represents a growth. Success in this line is founded upon some definite policy which is adhered to in a general way and improved upon from year to year. The business man who tries one plan of organization this year and another one next and switches about in his course is very likely to land nowhere in particular. Even to a greater extent it is true that good municipal government is a growth. It must represent the development which comes with years and with experience, as the people learn more and want more and have higher ideals of what public service means.

Jacksonville for a great many years operated under the aldermanic form of government. The system had some good points about it and some defects. The greater majority of the people, watching the growth of the commission form of government in other cities and hearing of its success, decided that the new form should be tried in Jacksonville, with the expectation that it would mean a period of progress and betterment for the city. The change was made and has been in operation for four years. It was not to be expected that vast betterments or changes would result immediately following the adoption of the new form of government or in the immediately succeeding years. It cannot be said, that there were such accomplishments as to make it an obvious fact that the commission form under all conditions is far superior to the aldermanic form under all conditions. It is equally true that nothing happened during the four years to impress upon the public that the commission form is a failure in Jacksonville.

This system of municipal control which has many good arguments in its favor, has certainly not been given a long enough test in Jacksonville to justify the public in voting to return to the old form. The city cannot hope to progress or improve if its course is vacillating and uncertain. To return now to the old form would create a period of unrest and business uncertainty and would not only not benefit the city but would retard the progress along many lines now imminent. It has been said many times over that good municipal government is a matter of men rather than of measures. It is possible to have good government under the aldermanic form or under the commission form or under the city manager plan, if efficient, honest men are elected to office.

At the last election the people selected a mayor and commissioners who stand well in the community and who measure up well with the standards of the best public officials that Jacksonville has had. These men have not had the opportunity to demonstrate what they can do as the officers in charge of municipal affairs, but they have given evidence of earnestness and have laid certain plans for the management of local affairs which give promise of a general forward movement. At this time there is no sound argument which can be urged in favor of a return to the old system. Let us avoid a period of chaos and uncertainty in local governmental affairs by adhering to the present form and giving our present officials the opportunity to demonstrate during the period of office on which they have just entered that the longer the commission form is in force and the more familiar the people become with the system the more satisfactory are the results.

The Utility Company and Public Improvements.

Following the announcement of Judge Martin in overruling the objections of the Jacksonville Railway company to their assessment of South Main street paving, the company's attorneys gave the usual formal notice of an appeal. The company will have twenty days for the perfecting of such an appeal, and the mere notice does not necessarily indicate an intention of carrying the matter to the highest court. While the right of the company to take this appeal cannot be questioned, the public will hope that the objectors will be satisfied with the lower court finding and not test the matter further.

It is true that the filing of an appeal does not necessarily stop the improvement, and that this can progress and be completed even before the finding on the appeal is made. Nevertheless the mere fact of a pending suit is likely to have some effect upon the letting of the contract who does the work must take his pay in improvement bonds, and it takes a very little thing in the intricate procedure connected with public improvement work to cast a shadow on the bonds and which may lessen the ease with which they can be sold to investors. With the doubt existing as to what the supreme court would decide in this matter and as to whether the company will be compelled to pay for the paving work about its rails and ties, or whether the city of Jacksonville must pay for this work, it would very likely happen that a contractor would add some dollars to his bid as a protection against the possibility of this very doubt interfering to some extent with the sale of the improvement bonds.

Just where the company would get by such an appeal or by its general opposition to improvement work, does not appear. While it is admitted that the company officers have a right to conduct the affairs of the corporation in the way which seems best to them, an outsider cannot but feel that a course in opposing public improvements where the company must bear a part of the expense will certainly not tend to increase the popularity of the company with the people. One of the slogans of utility companies the country over is that they cannot prosper without the good will of the people, and to quote again from an outsider's view point, it would seem that the local utility company in opposing public improvements is not catering for public good will. That the company finds some embarrassment in borrowing money since it has no local franchise it must be admitted, but such franchise can only exist by a vote of the people and for this very reason it would seem that the utility company should take no action which would have a tendency to make the people feel that their interests and the interests of the company are not in common.

Surely since the utility company is occupying certain streets with rails and ties and is using these rails and ties in the operation of its business, and is maintaining, moreover, that it has certain rights upon these streets, it would not be reasonable to expect that its roadway shall be paved at public expense. The theory is that a utility company uses streets by sufferance of the people and that it is obligated to the people. Most certainly there is no obligation on the part of the people to assist a utility company in maintaining its right of way. There is no more reason for the public paying for the paving adjoining a railway company's ties and rails than in paying for the ties and rails, or in paying the company for the operation of its cars.

As to the amount of the assessment against the railway company, that is a matter between the board of local improvement and the company, but on the broad question as to whether or not the company should be required to pave its right of way, the people have but one opinion and jointly with this opinion they hold another to the effect that the best interests of everybody will be conserved if the people and the company both favor public improvements.

MURRAYVILLE REBEKAHS GAVE PICNIC IN MURLEY'S GROVE

Odd Fellows and Families Enjoyed Bountiful Dinner — Impromptu Program and Athletic Sports.

The Sisters of the Murrayville Rebekah lodge are to be congratulated for having arranged and carried out one of the most pleasant and successful outings of the season. On Friday, August 27, previous arrangements having been made, the members of Rebekah Lodge, No. 76, I. O. O. F., Lodge No. 415, with their families met at W. E. McCurley's grove and after enjoying a bountiful dinner, proceeded to enjoy the afternoon. The grounds were fine, the weather ideal, the program impromptu and all present, old and young were made to feel that it was their picnic. Baseball, croquet, foot races, potato races, dropping the handkerchief and something doing every minute of the time.

Foot races—Boys under 10 years, Ivan Riggs, 1st; Samuel Osborne, 2nd. Boys under 15 years, Floyd Short, 1st; Melvin McCullom, 2nd. Girls under 10 years, Mary Wright, 1st; Ruth McCullom, 2nd. Girls free for all, Jane Wright, 1st; Floreca Short, 2nd.

The event in which the most interest was shown and which aroused a storm of good natured rivalry among the players and partisanship among the fans, was the ball game between the Rebekah nine and the I. O. O. F. team.

Rebekah line-up: Jane Wright, pitcher; Mildred Wright, catcher; F. Short, 1b; M. McCullom, 2b; Mary Wright, 3b; Ruth McCullom, rf; Sarah Jones, cf; Inez Sandidge, lf; Elva Osborne, ss; Lydia White, ss.

I. O. O. F. line-up: S. F. Sooy, pitcher; Claude Sandidge, catcher; Fred Walker, 1b; R. D. Mawson, 2b; W. A. Wesner, 3b; Geo. McAllister, rf; J. E. Osborne, cf; W. T. Cook, lf; H. U. Osborne, ss; C. T. Daniels and J. T. Warcup, pinch hitters.

Five innings, time 50 minutes, score tied, 8 runs each; hits without number; errors, none.

It was a matter of great regret that on account of late threshing and other engagements quite a number of families were prevented from attending. A register of those in attendance was taken and showed something over one hundred present. The picnic was a success from every angle, and it is very probable that it will be made an annual affair. Committee for Rebekahs, Mrs. Mahel Walker, Mrs. Inez Sandidge and Sarah Jones. Auxiliary committee, I. O. O. F., S. F. Sooy, R. D. Mawson and W. T. Cook.

ROUTE NUMBER ONE CHOSEN BY JUDGES

ROUTE THROUGH PALMYRA AND WAVERLY SELECTED.

Keen Competition Put Up by Route Number Three Which Went Through Franklin and Alexander—Officials Meet in White Hall Tomorrow.

The judges appointed at the recent Good Roads meeting in Greenfield to go over and pick out from Routes 1, 2 and 3 the branch of the Burlington way to go from Greenfield to Springfield decided Saturday on Route No. 1 which goes through Palmyra, Modesto, Waverly, New Berlin. There was a big fight on between routes number one and three and the delegation which boosted for the route through Franklin, Alexander and New Berlin, felt that something had been "cut and dried". In fact, from the promises made relative to the roads the Franklin route promised greater aid than did route No. 1. Townships 8, 9 and 12 of Morgan county practically promising to oil the roads which passed through the districts. Some pretty warm speeches were heard at Greenfield after the committee had returned to that place.

Labor and Cash Promised.

Route No. 3 had promised the following: $969.00; days with team $2876.50; labor, $440; dragging, $2010; Franklin agreed to do oiling worth $750; commissioners furnish labor, $500.

Route No. 1 promised the following: Cash subscribed, $882.50; days with teams, $1006.00; labor, $116; dragging, $3075; commissioners north of Palmyra agree to spend $475; one sickle mower subscribed in Palmyra, $15.

Judges on Trip.

The judges who made the trip were as follows: Herman Engelbach, Arenzville; L. R. Craig, Jacksonville; Mr. Pierce of Roodhouse represented by Otis Gibbons; John Wyatt, White Hall; W. C. Wilhite, Greenfield; Dr. George Powell of Greenfield represented A. L. Carter of Medora; Hiram Wright, Kemper; John Good, Rockbridge; Clarence Clark, Brighton.

The judges left Greenfield in cars at 8:15 Saturday morning. They went via Palmyra to Waverly, where they were met by Mayor Turnbull, Mr. Swift, Clarence Rohrer and Mr. Turner. At Waverly a splendid dinner was served. They also inspected two routes out of Modesto, the east and west lines. Waverly citizens accompanied the judges to New Berlin. New Berlin was left at 1 o'clock, several cars being added to the committee and the trip was made through Alexander, Franklin, Scottville, Jacksonville, thence back to Greenfield, where the business session was held and the vote taken. The vote stood five for route one; three for route No. three and one for route No. 2.

Alexander Commissioners. The following letter was read from commissioners of Alexander.

Alexander, Ill., Aug. 26, 1915. We do hereby guarantee to put in shape and oil entire mileage in road district No. 8, a distance of five miles, more or less, and will also keep in shape the entire mileage, also we will mark all poles in our district.

Signed

Charles M. Strawn, clerk.
Charles S. Magill,
John Snyder, Commissioners.

MAVERICKS

September now is almost here. It brings the first of autumn cheer. We lay aside the old straw hats, palm beach suits and gaiter spats. It is the month of ripening corn, also when the candidate blows his horn. Its the time to buy your winter coal when you search in vain for your small bank roll. It ushers out the church picnic with burgoo soup that made you sick, but oh, the unalloyed joy, it ushers in the football boy. The equinoctial storm it brings when the wind around the chimney sings; reminding you of snow and sleet and of the soaring price of meat. Wife now greets you all in smiles, for she has seen the new fall styles. She only wants a hat and suit, some furs and patent leather boots. But, oh why worry, about such things we have peace and the good it brings; good fresh air and bright sunlight, persimmons, too, will soon be ripe.

We notice an advertisement in an exchange which makes the statement the lightning is not an accident. It usually is when it hits some one.

Some time ago we wrote a little story about the death of Nancy Hanks, the famous race mare. It must have been more than passing good for we have seen it in no less than five exchanges and not one of them gave credit for it.

Merely as a suggestion it might be well for the authorities to have leather padding put on the boulevard lamp posts on the square. Then merchants who become so absorbed in thinking about their business may collide with them without disastrous results.

General Wood has been called down for allowing Col. Roosevelt to talk at the training camp at Plattsburgh, N. Y., a few days ago. Gen. Wood should not be blamed, it only goes to show that even the army is not in a state of preparedness sufficient to prevent the Colonel from expressing his views.

The Germans have a new weapon of offense. According to a headline in an exchange they captured Ossowitz with the Polish railway.

The dispatches tell us that the Kaiser is enjoying the best of health. While no definite information has been received it is understood that the Czar is suffering severely from internal trouble.

Wonder Who He Means?

We have heard of people being so that they couldn't tell some shades of blue from black but we didn't know there were so many men in Jacksonville who couldn't tell white from green. One day the past week four of the five white benches in Central Park provided for ladies were occupied by tired male individuals. There were plenty of green benches empty but it would have necessitated several extra steps to reach one of them.

DR. TAYLOR TELLS WAY TO SOIL FERTILITY

METHODS ARE SIMPLE BUT MUST BE CONSISTENTLY APPLIED.

If Man Supplies Humus Nature Will Do the Rest—Raising of Live-stock and Crop Rotation Will Bring Desired Results—Wisconsin's Notable Example.

Dr. W. E. Taylor, who made an address at the chautauqua Saturday afternoon, is recognized as one of the best agricultural authorities in the state. He conducts extensive farming operations on his own account and also as a representative of the Deere estate of Moline. Dr. Taylor's talk yesterday was upon "Soil Fertility" and he emphasized again the great need there is in Illinois for a proper attention to this question. While emphasizing this need, Dr. Taylor does not take a view at all pessimistic and declares that crop returns in the last year or two have given evidence of the recognition farmers are according this question.

Among other things he said: "On one of the lines out of Chicago is a fast train which is luxuriously furnished and which stops only at intervals between Chicago and the Pacific coast. On the same railroad other trains not so well equipped make the journey but stop at hundreds of stations. In the matter of agricultural education, the fast train is represented by our well equipped departments at the university and the other train is represented by our local organizations and our local schools where certain principles of agriculture can and should be emphasized. No better evidence of the growing understanding of soil conditions in Illinois could be given than the statement that the crops of Illinois this year will have a total dollar value of ten billions.

Elements of Fertility.

"There is no need for alarm about the fertility of Illinois soil for God placed in the soil and in the air those elements which can be united to maintain fertility or to restore it. Man is the dynamic force between the soil and the air which must bring this condition to pass. In the soil we find lime, magnesia, potash, sulphur, iron and other chemicals needed, and in the air the oxygen, nitrogen, carbon and hydrogen which are essential to the growth of plant life. God created the world and it remained for man to develop the beautiful roses of our greenhouses. The same is true of various fruits, and it is God who placed iron within the earth, but it remained for man to develop the processes by which the iron became available for our great steel structures today.

"So in this matter of fertility, man must add humus or organic matter and this can be done by stock farming and the proper rotation of crops. To return humus to the soil means to secure the necessary rotation of crops. To return humus to the soil means to secure the necessary amount of nitrogen and bacteria and we must have these things for the soil if it remains fertile just as much as we must have water if we would raise fish. There is practically no soil so deficient but that it can be made fertile if the proper methods are used. In my own experience I went to the east and purchased land at $5 an acre. First I planted rye, then cow peas, later applied a fertilizer which put humus in the soil by plowing it under, and on that farm I raised sixty bushels to the acre of corn and seventy bushels of oats and was later offered $100 an acre for the land which had cost me $5 an acre.

The Right Method.

"Some soils are pale and anaemic just as some people are, but the fertility can be restored to them and I have said, by the simple methods of stock raising and of crop rotation. In the preparation of the seed bed you must make a good roomy home for the seed just as you make roomy homes for yourselves. You may plant corn in sand and it will not grow, but of you mix organic matter with that sand, it will produce. For proof that soils do not wear out when proper methods are applied you can go to some portions of our southwestern country where under the hand of missionaries lands have been in cultivation for two hundred years, and there are portions of Pennsylvania which are vastly fertile today and have been in cultivation for a hundred and twenty years, and in the orient there are lands fertile today after fifty-two hundred known years of use. The same natural forces are at work now for restoring fertility that existed a million years ago in the earth's geological history.

"Some soils are deficient and in different localities they need different treatment, but we were given legume crops for this very purpose, that they may send down their roots deep into the soil and bring up certain chemicals and make them available for improving the soil's productivity. I once heard a prominent man say that the feeding of live stock did not pay and that a farmer could receive five times as much for his grain if sold direct out of the field than he could by feeding it to livestock, but the facts do not support any such theory and it is unfortunate that in Illinois we do not have a larger amount of live stock than is true today. The farmers of the state own a million cows, and it would be far better for them and for the soil of the state if the number reached two millions.

Wisconsin's Example.

"Years ago the soil of Wisconsin became so depleted that an agricultural crisis was imminent. Then came the live stock period and until that state today boasts of 1,850,000 cows and is known as one of the greatest dairying states in the union. As a result the farmers of Wisconsin last year sold dairy products to a total of $100,000,000, and on almost every good farm in that state you will find a monument of agricultural prosperity—the silo. This is one of the most important adjuncts of successful farming and the silo is one of the first things that I install upon any farm which I am operating. A silo must be built of right materials and in a scientific way if it brings the best results, but it is by no means an experiment and is not only an important adjunct of profitable live stock raising, but thus directly has a larger influence upon the question of soil fertility.

"The whole big question of caring for our soils and building them up is defined very simply to my mind in this matter of raising live stock and rotating crops. This statement is simple but permits a vast amount of elaboration. Conditions vary but the farmer who builds his operations upon these two principles and adapts the principles to fit the particular conditions of his farm and community will, if he persists, add to his own material success and perform a service to the general public in the contribution he thus makes by adding his acres to the total fertility of the state."

OPPOSED TO COMMISSION GOVERNMENT PLAN.

The following letter was recently received by W. N. Haigrove from David Davis, a well known resident of Litchfield who has always been opposed to the commission form of government. The letter to Mr. Haigrove was submitted by him for publication.

Hon. W. N. Haigrove,
8 Morrison Block,
Jacksonville, Illinois.

Dear Sir:

Have your recent letter and am very sorry that you favored the Commission form of government in the beginning as I am sure that if you had made a careful investigation of the workings of the Illinois plan you would have been against the proposition when it was first submitted.

Having watched results in other cities I was strongly opposed to the adoption of Commission Form by our people and when petitions were filed some months ago I resigned from my office as mayor and led the fight against a change from the aldermanic form and succeeded in persuading our people to retain the General Law although in making my campaign I made enemies of a considerable number of our people including many of the ministers of the gospel in Litchfield.

We have the usual percentage of dissatisfied people who are chronic kickers—we also have the usual number of people who like to criticize on general principles not that city officers are bad but that they could do things better. In addition to the two classes mentioned we unfortunately had the religious question which also entered into the campaign and on that account we are still in a turmoil and will continue so until our people have a chance to settle down so that their minds will be in shape to consider the affairs of our city, as separate from religious, "Wet" and "Dry" and other issues. During my campaign against Commission Form of Government I had occasion to refer quite often to the City Commissions of Jacksonville, Springfield and Decatur and there is no doubt but what Commission Form has made a mess of city affairs in all three places.

The foundation of the Commission Form idea in Illinois is the theory that a good salary insures good behavior in public office which theory is nearly opposite to the truth. If there is in Jacksonville a good citizen, honest, competent, patriotic, who would refuse to serve your city as an alderman or mayor for a comparatively nominal sum the fact that he would accept one of the offices named for the sake of a fairly good salary would be sufficient evidence that he was not patriotic, not public spirited and was not exactly honest nor really a good citizen.

After several years study and a most careful investigation I am forced to conclude that the dishonest, incompetent office holder is the product of dishonest incompetent voters as any community can have the class of officers that a majority of the voters want and if a majority of the voters of any community will go to the polls fully informed and with nothing in view except the good of their city they will always have a good administration and the reason that so many cities are cursed with incompetent, dishonest government is because the voters consider election day as the time set for the settlement of all personal disputes, a day in which to "get even" with somebody, an opportunity to prove that their own political party is the stronger in numbers than some other party, that they are more interested in "Wet" and "Dry" than they are in the general good of their people, and other reasons none of which should be considered by any voter who honestly wishes to use his influence for the general good.

I feel safe in saying that fifty per cent of the voters in Illinois cities go to the polls with very little, if any information concerning the qualifications to vote intelligently and a considerable part of the others if informed go to the polls entirely willing to cast their ballot for unfit candidates, on account of political religious, social, financial or similar reasons.

Will watch the outcome at Jacksonville with interest as the abandonment of Commission Form by your city will have a great deal to do with what other communities might say on the subject later.

Yours truly,

DAVID DAVIS.

RULES FOR LOCAL GOLF COURSE ANNOUNCED

The laying out of the golf course at Nichols park has necessitated the adoption of rules governing the players. The rules are briefed from the rules of the United States Golf association and have been made as simple as possible. All points not covered in the rules presented will be governed by the regulations as laid down by that association. Players are urged to familiarize themselves with the rules in the abstract and to also study the rules of the United States Golf association. The rules follow:

1. Each player is limited to the use of one ball.
2. Single players will be allowed the use of the course at the discretion of the official in charge.
3. The use of the course will be governed by the official in charge.
4. Do not stick the flag in the putting green. Lay it down.
5. No player shall play from a tee until those in front have played their second strokes and are out of range. Also they shall not play to a putting green until those in front have holed out and moved away.
6. Players who have holed out must not try their putts over again, as there are others behind them following.
7. Players looking for a lost ball must allow a two ball match to pass them.
8. Driving from the putting green is not permitted.
9. Players must play over the course in the regular way. Playing backward is not permitted.
10. Players about to drive must call "Fore!" as a warning to those in front.
11. Turf cut or displaced in playing a stroke must be replaced at once.
12. Players will play off in turn in the order of their arrival.
13. No more than four will be allowed to play together at one time.
14. All roads are hazards and a penalty of one stroke will be counted for lifting out, except drives to the road to the right of No. 67 past the white marker on the green, in which case one may lift out without penalty.
15. Do not make a stroke if there is danger of hitting a passing vehicle or person.
16. The regular teeing grounds must be used.
17. Caddie rates shall not exceed 10 cents per round and any caddie charging more than said amount shall be prohibited from acting as caddie on the park links.

AMERICAN COLLEGES—WILLIAM AND MARY.

William and Mary college is so small that its student body could jam itself into a University room. A crowd of Greek letter societies in good form could out-yell the whole school and the third scrum football team of Harvard could make its varsity eleven look like a plate of hash. Its oldest building is the oldest college building in the United States. It has been put out of business by two wars. It has educated four presidents—Jefferson, Monroe, Harrison and Tyler. It had the biggest college president who world has known—George Washington. It originated the elective and honor systems and the Greek letter societies. Thomas Jefferson helped run it once. John Marshall was an alumnus. At one time both president and vice-president of the United States were its former students. These few modest facts ought to enable the shrinking alumnus of William and Mary to lean up against the Yale man who roomed with a member of the crew and talk to him quite fearlessly.

William and Mary is located at Williamsburg, Va. wing to the untamed neighborhood it took seventy-two years to start it, but it finally began business in 1693. It was closed during the revolution and in the Civil war its whole student body with a few exceptions enlisted in the Confederate army. After the war, there was nothing left of the school but a campus, a foundation and an imposing wad of history. The school was unable to run on the history and closed in 1882, but six years later Virginia came to its rescue. It now has 250 students, gets $200,000 a year from the state, and is as vigorous as if it had not been almost fatally masted by the tooth of time.

William and Mary's main building was built in 1693, has been burned three times, but still has its original walls and is being used today. All brick masons should be required to take a course of study in this build-

MOTION PICTURES FOR WARDS OF THE STATE

Board of Administrators Finds Movies Provide Beneficial Entertainment Program.

Springfield, Aug. 28.—Motion pictures are being shown the patients in state charitable institutions at regular intervals, according to an announcement made today by the state board of administration. The chief idea, it was said, was, not to effect cures, but to lighten the gloom which hangs over the inmates.

The "gray haired children" in the Lincoln State school and colony greatly enjoy the motion picture treats. There are none but feeble minded among the 1,700 inmates of this institution and most of them are old men and women.

"The insane also are ardent movie fans," said an official of the board. "They have their favorite film stars. Any kind of a slap stick comedy tickles them. Of course we never show them anything that would excite them."

"War pictures and patriotic stuff is in demand at the Soldiers and Sailors home at Quincy and the Soldiers' widows' home, Wilmington."

Boston Takes Double Header from Cleveland—St. Louis Downs Washington.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Inability to hit with men on bases and poor offense running on the part of the Chicago White Sox cost them the second game of the series with Philadelphia today. The score was 4 to 2 in favor of the visitors. Bunched hits coupled with a wild pitch, two errors and a base on balls gave Philadelphia its runs. Score:

WILL HOLD THEIR ANNUAL CELEBRATION.
Portuguese Anniversary and Northminster Church Picnic to Be Held Thursday.

The sixty-sixth annual Portuguese celebration and the Northminster church picnic will be held jointly next Thursday, Sept. 2, at Nichols Park. The Portuguese celebration is usually held on the 23rd of August, but was postponed this year on account of the chautauqua. The plans are for an afternoon program which will include addresses by Rev. W. E. Spoons, H. H. Bancroft and H. H. Vasconcellos. There will be musical numbers as well, and after the program a basket picnic will be enjoyed. Mayor H. J. Rodgers will preside during the formal program. Athletic sports will be a feature of the afternoon and there will be a refreshment stand at which lunches will be sold to persons who do not care to bring baskets with them. The evening hours will be given over to sociability.

MISSIONARY MEETING.
The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Centenary church will hold its regular meeting Friday, September 3, at the home of Mrs. T. H. Rapp, 320 South East street.

NEWSPAPER OFFICE NOW AT STATE UNIVERSITY.

Has Been Added to Equipment of School of Journalism.

When students of journalism return to the campus of the University of Illinois about the middle of September they will discover that a full-fledged newspaper office has been added to the instructional equipment during their absence. It is known as a newspaper laboratory, and will afford a practical application of classroom discussion. The office is furnished with typewriters and desks, copy-table, newspaper files and library facilities. Here "stories" will be hammered out, then given over to students who correct the "copy" and write the headlines. Every operation from the gathering of news to the printed page itself will be accomplished in the laboratory under skilled direction.

The new courses, looking toward the enrichment of the offerings in journalism, will be taught by H. F. Harrington, who holds degrees from Ohio State University and Columbia University. Mr. Harrington worked as reporter on the Ohio State Journal five years, and was editor of the London, Ohio, Times for three years. He served as the director of courses in journalism at Ohio State University four years, resigning a year ago to become dean of a proposed school of Journalism at Western Reserve University. The project was given up because of failure to receive promised funds. Then he went to the University of Kansas for the year as assistant professor of journalism. Mr. Harrington is the author of two text books, "Essentials in Journalism," and "Typical Newspaper Stories," both widely used by students in journalism. He has contributed numerous articles on phases of journalism to various periodicals.

Frank W. Scott, who introduced the courses in journalism at Illinois, will continue in charge and will teach three courses. The announcement of the new program of study has just been issued by the University. It embraces a wide range of journalistic activity, with a solid foundation in history, politics, economics, and literature.

'MORNING GLANCES'
(By Gosh)

The Boston Braves, the world's champions defeated Cincinnati Saturday in the opening game of the series. The game was largely a pitcher's battle between Rudolph and Toney, each allowing five hits. The Braves won by timely hitting while Rudolph kept the Reds hits well scattered.

Jawn Evers proved his worth to a ball team yesterday by making both the Braves runs. Evers also got a double. He was at bat one time and got his hit which gave him a batting average of 1,000 for the day.

The Giants beat their ancient enemies, the Cubs yesterday by a score of 2 to 0. Tesreau pitched great ball for the Giants, holding the Cubs to three hits. Larry Doyle got himself two hits out of three times at bat besides making a sacrifice fly.

Philadelphia beat the White Sox yesterday by a score of 4 to 2. The Athletics hit the ball hard getting twelve hits while the White Sox were unable to hit with men on bases.

St. Louis trimmed Washington Saturday the final score being 2 to 0. The game went twelve innings and was won by Pratt's single which scored Hamilton with the winning run.

Brooklyn by winning from Pittsburgh in a double header moved up closer to Philadelphia in the National league race. Both games were pitchers battles the Superbas winning the first by a score of 2 to 1 and the second by a score of 3 to 0. In each game the Brooklyn pitchers, Rucker and Pfeffer, figured in the scoring by their hitting.

Polarine
FRICTION-REDUCING MOTOR OIL

Is Used by Probably 65%

of the motorists in the Middle West. This estimate is based on the sale last year in the Middle West alone of nearly 7,000,000 gallons.
Polarine is produced by special processes in the largest oil refinery in the world, where every facility known to make for high quality in a lubricant is available.
It maintains the correct lubricating body at any motor speed or temperature, prolonging the life and increasing the power of every standard make and type of motor car, motor truck and motor boat now in use.
Use it in your motor and learn the difference between merely "oil" and Polarine.

NEGRO WANTS TO BE LYNCHED.

Murdered His Benefactress Who Received in His Honor.

Duquoin, Ill., Aug. 28.—Like a raving maniac, Joe Deberry, confessed slayer of his benefactress, Mrs. James H. Martin, demands that he be given up to be lynched. He smites the bars of his cell, haunted by the victim of his awful deed. Deberry, who was a colored servant in the Martin family, has brought about a double tragedy. For the husband of his victim died suddenly from the shock of the murder.

A special session of the Jackson county grand jury has been called for next Monday to investigate the murder. Deberry is in terrible mental agony as the hour approaches when he must tell his story. He will be indicted for murder and will be given a quick trial. His confession will figure largely in the evidence.

Mrs. Martin was the wife of a prominent attorney in Murphysboro. Some time ago, Deberry was sent to jail on complaint of her husband that he had stolen a ring from Mrs. Martin. Despite this theft, Mrs. Martin took such an interest in the convict that she secured his parole. Then to show her faith in the "honorable" of a convict, she gave him employment in her household. She paid for her belief on July 30, when she was brutally beaten to death with a poker in the hands of the negro she had aided. To protect him from the mobs, Deberry was taken to the jail here.

On August 14th, Attorney Martin, husband of the victim of this terrible tragedy, dropped dead at West Baden, Ind. He was 60 years old, and had gone away seeking relief from the shock of the tragedy.

"I did not try to rob Mrs. Martin; I went up stairs to kill her," was the confession of Deberry to the police. "I was crazy from drinking gin. She made me mad by asking me to wash the dinner dishes, when I wanted to go downtown. I killed her with a poker. I followed her upstairs to do it. I don't know how many times I hit her. 'What are you doing up here; are you drunk?' she asked me. The feeling to kill went all over me."

Since his confinement in jail here, Deberry has pleaded for death, for any relief from his ghosts that haunt him. "They can cut me to pieces, they can hang me, burn me, shoot me dead, and I won't say nothing. But let me get it over with quick."

"I see her everywhere. I can't get away from her. I see her eyes, and they are big and round, and scared, and they haunt me. I wake up screaming and can't go to sleep again."

Mrs. Curtis Carter of Neelyville visited yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Biggs on Clay avenue.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS TODAY.

Aug. 29.

Charles J. Glidden, pioneer successively in the telephone business, in automobile and in aerial navigation, is 58 years old today. When he was only 19 he was assisting Prof. A. Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, and made the earliest experiments with the new means of communication, between Boston and Manchester, N. H. He built many lines in New England, and secured, at Lowell, the first subscriber to an exchange system in the world, in 1877. At 22 he built the first long distance line from Lowell to Boston. At one time he controlled a large part of the present Bell system. He is reputed to have made millions in the business. Next he turned to the automobile, and was the first to tour the world in a motor car. He went 46,500 miles in 36 countries, from 1901 to 1908. Dr. Thomas C. ELECT STATE OF HINDENBURG

Berlin, Aug. 28.—An heroic statue of Field Marshal von Hindenburg will be unveiled here today, and the city will be given over to a half holiday in recognition of the famous warrior who led the center of the drive against Russia. The statue is of wood, and it will be armored with nails driven home by patriotic Germans.

RETURN FROM VISIT.

Mrs. Curtis Templin of East College avenue and brother-in-law, Dr. Gene Osborne of Perry, Okla., have returned from Mahomet, Champaign county, where they visited their sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Sisk. Dr. Osborne expects to leave Monday for a visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Osborne, returning from there to his home in Oklahoma.

THE ANTIOCH GLEANERS.

The Sunday school class, "The Gleaners," taught by Mrs. Sukeman in the Antioch church east of the city held a market Saturday in the Williamson grocery store window and report a very satisfactory sale of good things to eat. Those in charge were Misses Effie Lukeman, Minnie Robinson and Margaret Trotter.

Mrs. Tillie Newby of Franklin is at home after a visit with her mother Mrs. Richard Nickel in Warsaw, Hancock county.

Bigger Tires At Lower Prices

Sizes 30 x 3 1/2 and 30 x 3

This year we have added
Goodyear Small-size tires
e three vast improve-
ts:
/e have added 20% to ir capacity, which means h added size. The larger
e the more it will carry,
ou know. Or the longer
ll carry any certain load, /e have added 30% to ide wall strength. That's e constant bending
ks a thin-walled tire—
above the rim.

And we've improved the tire's design in new ways
found to give it added strength.

Cost $317,000

These improvements, on this year's output, will cost us $317,000.

Yet this year we made another big price reduction
—our third in two years,
totaling 45 per cent.

Super Tires

These are Goodyear tires which we have bettered—the leading tires. They have for years, on sheer merit,
outsold any other.

New we have added

BOUGHT IN JACKSONVILLE AND SAVED MONEY

Ms. Mary Turner Carriel has recently returned from Chicago where she visited with the family of Mr.
and Mrs. A. L. McPherson. Mrs.
Carriel says Mr. McPherson built on Sheridan Drive a fine dwelling house this summer and being unable to get his mill work in Chicago on account of the strike ordered it from the Crawford Lumber company of this city and was gratified and surprised to get the material $200 cheaper than he would have gotten it in Chicago; it came promptly and the architect said he never saw better mill work anywhere. This certainly speaks well for a Jacksonville firm.

WILL MAKE IMPROVEMENTS.

T. M. Tomlinson, who has been with his family in their cottage at Pentwater, Mich., for some days, takes an active part in progressive movements there just as he does in Jacksonville. A copy of a recent issue of the Pentwater weekly paper shows that property holders on the north beach recently met to organize for certain improvements which are planned for next year. Mr. Tomlinson was chosen secretary of the organization and is a member of a committee. Tennis courts, electric lights, telephones, concrete walks and other improvements are planned for next season.

MR. LEDFORD'S WILL FILED.

The will of the late William H.
Ledford was filed for probate Saturday and hearing set for Sept. 20.
The will was drawn Sept. 20, 1909, and witnessed by J. J. Reave and Mrs. Lina Apperson. The testator directed that his personal property and his residence property, lot 176 in the original town of Jackso-ville, should become the property of his wife and at her death that an equal division of the estate should be made. Mrs. Ledford has died since the will was drawn, and among the six children who are the property will now be divided
Mrs. Mary Tunison, W. C. Ledford,
Mrs. Lizzie Craft, C. H. Ledford,
Mrs. Emma J. Corrington and F. W.
Ledford. The will provides that W.
C. Ledford shall become executor.

PROBATE COURT

The inventory and appraisement
bill have been approved in the estate of W. T. Luttrell. A petition for the appointment of an appraiser to fix the inheritance tax was allowed and John M. Butler was appointed.

The court appointed D. J. Staley
as appraiser to fix inheritance tax in the estate of the late Isaiah Strawn.

Acting upon the petition for the filing of the will of the late W. H.
Ledford, the court fixed Sept. 20 as the date for hearing on the petition.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

LOWEST VALUES FOR CROP ARE REGISTERED BY WHEAT AT OPENING

Temporary Rally on Coverings By Shorts is Followed by Freer Offerings and Market Declines Again.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Lowest values for the crop were registered by wheat at the opening today. There was a temporary rally on coverings by shorts but offerings became freer and the market declined again, closing irregular 4¢ lower to 4¢ higher at 97¢ for September and 95¢ for December.

Corn, after a nervous unsettled grower from forecast of opening strength in the northwest and closed strong 1/4 to 3/8¢ net higher with September at 73¢ and December at 63 1/2¢.

Oats after a little early strength which followed a weak opening declined and closed unchanged to 1/4¢ lower.

Provisions closed dull and easier, 7 1/2¢ lower to 2 1/2¢ higher. The low prices which marked the opening of the wheat market was the signal for a rush of buying, mostly on the part of shorts, who were prompted largely by a sharp upturn at Minneapolis where mills were buying heavily. The latter half of the session in the wheat pit was marked by a steady decline.

The strength manifested by corn in the first hour continued to the finish except for a light decline after the top point had been reached.

Oats sagged at the opening to the lowest prices recorded by the crop. The close was near the low point of the day.

DAINTY CREAM PUFFS.

A great many housekeepers depend upon the filling and still be delicate eating.

Cream puffs are sometimes filled with jam or jelly in place of custard.

If you wish to make very showy ones use a pastry tube for putting the mixture onto the baking sheet and finish the tops with frosting sprinkled with chopped nuts.

Questions and Answers.

"What is a safe rule for telling when fruit jellies are boiled enough to jelly?"—Clara.

Reply—There is no hard and fast rule for this, as some fruits contain more of the jelly-making principle, pectose, than others. The consistency of fruit jellies is affected by the weather, also; on wet days it is almost impossible to get them to jelly.
Therefore, bright, sunny weather should be chosen for the work of jelly making.

Twenty minutes from the time the sugar is added is the usual amount of time allotted for the boiling of the juice and the syrup should show an unmistakable jelly-like consistency when a little is dropped on a testing plate. If jellies are boiled more than twenty-five minutes and will not become firm you must add some other juices to the syrup and cook it over after it has become cold.

Crab-apple and quince are both cooked with fruits that are doubtful in their jelly-making constituents and green grapes also make a useful addition to almost all jellies.

"Please tell me what Koumiss is and what it is used for?"—Anxious.

Reply—Koumiss is fermented milk sweetened; it is made with brewer's yeast and must be strongly corked when bottled. It is a pleasant beverage and is often prescribed for invalids.

tember.

Boils and Pimples Dangerous S. S. S. Your Remedy

Standard For Fifty Years

Modern science has proven that boils and carbuncles, pimples and unsightly skin blotches, are the danger signals of diseased blood. Scaly skin and itching of Eczema, Scrofula, rashes—all skin diseases are aggravated by bad blood—it's the infected blood that's dangerous. Don't wait for the boils. If you have pimples and blotches, take instant action. Pimples tell you that your blood is filled with impurities. You must wash out your blood, strengthen and stimulate it to healthy action with Nature's own blood tonic, S. S. S. It is the standard blood purifier of the world. Don't use any drugs, don't use ointments and salves. S. S. S. reaches the blood, drives out the impurities. It makes healthy perspiration—the poison is literally sweated out through the skin. Boils, blotches, Eczema and the Scrofula indications disappear. It does what salves and lotions can never do—it goes to the very root of the trouble by reaching the blood. Your skin becomes clear and you soon feel the vigor of the return of perfect health. S. S. S. is purely vegetable. You can get it at any druggist's, but you must take

STRONG PROGRAM WILL CLOSE CHAUTAUQUA

CONGRESSMAN MURRAY AND FATHER COLLINS SPEAKERS TODAY.

"Mexico" Will Be Subject of World Traveler and Catholic Divine—Adrian Takes Audience into Burbank's Wonderland Last Night—Warm Welcome For Short Family.

THE SUNDAY PROGRAM.
9:30—Sunday school.
10:30—Sacred Music—Jeffries band.
11:00—Sermon—Rev. F. A. McCarty.
Afternoon.
2:00—Music—Jeffries' band.
2:30—Lecture—Hon. W. H. Murray, of Oklahoma, congressman at large.
4:00—Concert—Jeffries' band.
Evening.
6:30—Vesper Service.
7:30—Music—Jeffries' band.
8:00—Lecture—Father Collins.

With two such men as Congressman William H. Murray and Father Michael Collins on the program and Jeffries' band appearing in three fine concerts, closing day at the Jacksonville chautauqua bids fair to equal if not surpass any day that has gone before, not only in point of attendance but in the matter of interest and entertainment afforded.

Dr. W. E. Taylor, the band with two concerts, Henry A. Adrian, and by no means least, the Short family of Murrayville, served to make a program of real merit for "Farmers' day."

Carl H. Weber will act as superintendent of the chautauqua Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock. There will be time for class teaching and several classes, in fact, from the city Sunday schools, will be there in full force with their regular teachers. The sacred concert by the band will be followed by an address by the Rev. F. A. McCarty.

Hon. William H. Murray is congressman at large from Oklahoma. He is a man widely known, not for speaking ability only, but for interest in things agricultural and enthusiasm for alfalfa, which won him the sobriquet, "Alfalfa Bill." Father Collins was in the city yesterday and created an excellent impression among citizens he met. The prelate has been twice around the globe and has lived a considerable time in Mexico, the land he proposes to discuss tonight.

The Short family gave an entertainment yesterday afternoon, at the close of the address on "How to Make Farming Profitable" by Dr. W. E. Taylor. So well did they please that a second concert was arranged for Saturday night. "Won't You Come Out and Play," "All On Board for Dixie" and "I'm On My Way to Dublin Bay," the three numbers given, met with heartiest applause. Though heard many times in this community, the Short family lose nothing by repetition. Their appearance yesterday was an undisputed success.

The Two Greatest Men.
"The two greatest men in the United States today are Luther Burbank and Thomas A. Edison," said Henry A. Adrian in his lecture on Mr. Burbank's wizard work with plants. "How seldom do you see these men pictured in the school room!" continued Mr. Adrian. "It is the warrior we honor; the likeness of the man of arms we hang on our school room walls."

"With Burbank in His Wonderland" was a lecture alike for practical man and dreamer. The mighty things done by the genius with plant life are but suggestions of what is yet to come to pass. Mr. Adrian showed specimens of spineless cactus, the pitless plum and the quick growing walnut in illustration of his theme.

Board of Health Exhibit.
A highly interesting exhibit left the chautauqua grounds Saturday when the Illinois state health exhibit, placed during the week just past in the women's auxiliary tent, was packed and shipped to Princeton, Ill., to do service at the Bureau County Fair. F. R. Wilkin, who accompanies the exhibit, was most courteous to the many chautauqua goers who took time to examine these models for promotion of public health. From Princeton the exhibit will be shipped to East St. Louis and to other cities south. Dr. St. Clair Drake is secretary of the state board of health and has the sending of these exhibits in general charge.

"The breathing dolls" attracted considerable attention, illustrating well by the appearance of the rooms in which the dolls reclined just how necessary it is to always have fresh air. "The dirty fly in action" showed by a clever mechanical contrivance the ease with which this pest finds its way from the stable to dining room or cradle. Water and milk supply were the theme of two other models.

Chautauqua Notes
Following is the Jeffries program for this afternoon and evening. There will be a sacred concert at 10:30 o'clock in addition:
Two O'clock:
Overture Stradella Plotow
Entr'act and waltz
Coppetee Delibes
Unfinished Symphony Schubert
The concert at four:
Overture, Poet and Peasant
Von Suppe
Vocal, My Little Dream Girl
Freidland
Atlantis (The Lost Continent)
Patronek
Suite, in four movements.
Llargo Durrak
Vocal, A Perfect Day Bond
Gilbert Chamberlain.

Xylophone, The Rosary Nevlin
Ray Wilson.
Descriptive Fantasia, A Day at the Panama Exposition Lake
The closing concert:
Grand Fantasia, America Forever Tobani
Paraphrase, Nearer My God to Thee Reeves Audience Singing.

Henry A. Adrian, the Saturday night speaker, went to Roodhouse by auto after the lecture to take train for California, his home. The plant samples with which he illustrated his lecture on Burbank, Mr. Adrian presented to Frank J. Heintz. ePeople were in the audience last evening from Riggsdon, Waverly, Arenzville and Chapin. The crowd, though not up to usual proportions, was good for Saturday night and Mr. Adrian's talk was received with favor.

Mrs. Edward Henry of East St. Louis and Mrs. Olive Page of Roodhouse are among recently arrived campers at the chautauqua. With every train except the Hummer stopping at the grounds and a flagman stationed at the crossing with red and green signal lanterns to guard against accident chautauqua goers have appreciated the accommodations afforded by the Chicago & Alton railroad. Many who attended from Murrayville and Woodson could stay for the evening concert and catch the 8:15 o'clock train for the south.

In two concerts yesterday Jeffries' band was as well received as ever and the audience during the entire season in fact seem never to tire of the varied programs. Especial compliment was paid the band by the Gallatin North Missourian in the closing account of the Davies County chautauqua, where the boys last appeared. The band made a great hit, says the Missourian, and everybody was delighted with the musical programs. "Mr. Jeffries, the pleasing director, knows how to entertain a chautauqua audience, and his splendid organization never appeared on the platform without receiving hearty applause."

Good service has been the motto of ladies of the Christian church, who had in charge the chautauqua dining pavilion. The quality of the food has been uniformly good and chautauqua goers will be pleased to know that the project was managed in a profitable manner.

The presence on the grounds of J. C. Kumashata, of Youngstown, O., represents a good idea in chautauqua management. Mr. Kumashata is booking talent for next year's chautauqua at Youngstown. He has attended several assemblies this season and is able to size up each attraction at first hand.

The success of the Y. M. C. A. boys in their two gymnastic drills has given the team further encouragement in a plan for some time considered, to work up a regular lyceum program next summer and visit several chautauquas. One member of the drill team spoke very hopefully of this plan at the conclusion of the Friday night performance.

THIEF GETS CASH AT C. & A. PASSENGER STATION

Rifted Money Drawer of About $60 While Agent Was on Station Platform.

An old burglary was committed about nine o'clock Saturday evening when a thief entered the Chicago and Alton ticket office and secured between sixty and seventy dollars. The robbery occurred while the ticket agent, H. D. Capps, was out attending to the south bound passenger train which is due here about 9 o'clock.

Mr. Capps who is night man at the station, has to work all the trains himself. He always locks the door when he leaves the office. The door is rather hard to shut and it is possible that the spring failed to catch. It is evident that the robber entered through the door and no windows were open or broken. It also seems that the deed was committed by someone who is familiar with conditions at the ticket office.

When Mr. Capps discovered the robbery he at once notified the police who began to look up suspicious characters. Mr. Capps also remembered selling a colored man a ticket just before he went out of the office to make the train. He telegraphed to Roodhouse and had the man taken in charge. Search, however, showed that he only had five dollars in money and he was released.

The money taken consisted of bills and silver. As near as Mr. Capps could figure the robber got about fifteen dollars in silver dollars and the remainder in currency. The small change was not touched. The police have as yet no clue of the thief.

GEORGE ZEPPENFELD COMES TO VISIT RELATIVES IN CITY

Man in Whose Memory Funeral Services Were Held Several Weeks Since Gives Proof That He Is Alive—Insurance Money Will Be Refunded and Policies Renewed.

George Zeppenfeld who was supposed to have committed suicide in Rockford on June 24, arrived in Jacksonville Saturday morning. Zeppenfeld seemed to be tired of wandering and will remain at the home of his uncle, Fred Zeppenfeld, 1345 South East street.

Zeppenfeld when he was told by his cousin in Decatur that his father supposed him to be dead, made up his mind to come to Jacksonville at once. Lack of funds prevented his arrival until Saturday morning. He went immediately to the home of his uncle where he was given a warm welcome. Saturday afternoon his uncle took him to the office of the Prudential Insurance company to give them visible proof that George Zeppenfeld was alive. The agent of the company had Zeppenfeld go before a notary public and make an affidavit to that effect. His father already has made arrangements to refund the money paid to him on his son's policies and they will be returned to him and become effective again.

Young Zeppenfeld has no idea of who the suicide was or how he came in possession of some of his belongings. He believes, however, that the man must have occupied his room at the Jarvis Inn in Rockford after he left and opened his valise and took possession of the articles he wanted. According to Zeppenfeld he left Rockford and journeyed to Chicago. From there he went to Minneapolis and then to Aberdeen, South Dakota. He then went to St. Paul where he worked for some time as stoker on a packet between that city and Duluth. Zeppenfeld expects to remain in Jacksonville for the present and will make his home with his uncle.
